THE LATEST CATALOGUES OF AMERICAN BOOK PUBLISHERS;

PRECEDED BY

AND BY THE AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE FOR 1887.

Fifteenth Year

EXPLANATIONS.

A consecutive paging being impossible in catalogues supplied by so many differen houses, a practical device has been adopted, by which is given, in the index, the actu paging which each list would have, had the volume been printed as one book an paged consecutively. The paging is as correct as it was possible to make it, a litt guess-work being necessary where some lists did not reach us until the eleventh hour.

For the body of the work, from pages 115 to 2638, printed sheets were suppli by the contributors, and are arranged alphabetically by the firm-name. If these pag are renumbered, making at least sure that the paging of the first page of each li accurately corresponds with that given in the index (a small job for a blank-book mak with a paging machine, or for any one with a blue pencil at unemployed time), it w add to the convenience of the volume for reference, and will amply repay for the troub The renumbering should not be continued beyond page 2638, as the supplementa pages were numbered and printed before all the lists were received, and were ther fore begun with 3001, a figure easily remembered and not likely to be exceeded by t preceding matter.

Denison's "Duplex Index," which has this year been applied to all copies, will b found very useful and convenient.

☞ Booksellers and librarians who may be annoyed and inconvenienced by t unexpected absence of certain lists must not hold this office responsible. All th could be done in the way of argument has been done, and there is no publish known to this office who has not been addressed several times on his own behalf a well as in the interest of the trade and the "Annual." Nor would it be pro for us to make explanations that the absentee alone can give satisfactorily.

EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE.

TELEGRAPHIC CODE.

There is added to the EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE this year, by general request, a telegraphic code for ordering text-books, which is intended to replace the individual codes issued by publishers for their own books, and by wholesale dealers, with a uniform method for the entire trade.

This code is based on the name of publisher, name of author, and designation of individual book (sometimes by initials and sometimes necessarily arbitrary)—a natural system, giving more opportunity to catch possible errors than where hap-hazard words or signs are associated arbitrarily with each book. This method also allows code-signs for new books to be interpolated in future catalogues without breaking down the system.

Each book is designated by six letters, the first and second being the first two letters of the author's or series' name, so as to preserve an approximately alphabetical arrangement, corresponding nearly to the arrangement of the books; the third and fourth the designation of the book by that author or in that series; the fifth and sixth the abbreviation of the publisher. Thus, Adefco would mean Addick's Elementary French, published by Charles Collins.

The name of the publisher, as designated by the two letters (fifth and sixth) is placed in SMALL CAPITALS, so as to be readily caught by the eye. Where two or more publishers issue the same book, either separate code-words are given, or the code-word is formed by adding to the four letters the two letters designating the publisher preferred. Thus, in the case of the Standard Supplementary Readers, issued in identical editions by four houses under mutual arrangement, the first of that series would be ordered as StsaAP, or StsaBA, or StsaIV, or StsaVA, according as the dealer preferred Appletons', or Barnes', or Ivison's, or Van Antwerp's issue. If he has no choice, the sign XX may be used to designate any publisher; thus, Stsaxx would mean Standard Supplementary 1st Reader, any edition.

In writing a despatch treat the small capitals as ordinary lower-case letters, using a capital only at the beginning of each code-word to separate it from the previous code-word.

In the case of a series, as Rightmyer's Penmanship, having but one code-sign, the first, second, etc., of a series may be ordered by affixing to the six letters a seventh, or seventh and eighth, designating the ordinal numbers, to wit: m-1st, n-2d, o-3d, p-4th, q-5th, r-6th, s-7th, t-8th, u-9th, v-10 or o. Thus, RipeBEm would order Rightmyer's Penmanship, no. 1; RipeBEq, same, no. 5; RipeBEv, same, no. 10; RipeBEmo, same, no. 13. In the case of special State editions of geographies, etc., the name of the State must be added as a separate word.

The number ordered is designated by the last letters of the code-word, to wit: a-1, b-2, c-3, d-4, e-5, f-6, g-7, h-8, i-9, j-0, k-00, l-000. Thus, six letters only mean one copy; b as a last letter means 2 copies; ab, 12 copies; bj, 20 copies; ak, 100 copies; abe, 125 copies; al, 1000 copies.

In using this code, preface the despatch with the abbreviation for shipping directions, with the letters PW added, to wit: Sendpw, Mailpw, Exprpw, Frgtpw, Fastpw, Boatpw, Enclpw, mean respectively, Send in any way, Send by mail, Send by express, Send by freight, Send by fast freight, Send by boat, Enclose to usual agent—the following books, for interpretation of which see PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY code.

When a dispatch is received it is to be interpreted as follows: The first word is shipping directions. Each additional word is an order for a line of books (unless in the case of an explanatory word, like the name of a State, which follows the code-word of the book to which it refers). In each of those words the first and second letters are the first and second letters of the name of the author or series, under which it is alphabeted in the EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE. This reduces the search to a few lines, when the third and fourth letters, or the fifth and sixth letters, give an easy cue. The only difficulty will be in the case of long series like the Ahn books, where the arbitrary signs necessarily used may give some slight trouble. If there are only six letters, one copy of the book is required. Additional letters mean, if in the first part of the alphabet, the number of copies wanted; if in the last part, the number in a series which has but one code-sign.

Thus: Exprpw Ahhist, Stsaxxab, Stsbbad, Ripeben, Ripebesab, Ripebemnbd, Krasapsadd, Krpsapbd, Anlkhmb, reads,

Express, using PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY code:

1 Ahn-Henn First French Reader, with notes, half roan.
12 Standard Supplementary Reader, No. 1, any edition.
4 " " " " 2, Barnes' edition.
1 Rightmyer's Penmanship, No. 2.
12 " " " 7.
24 " " " 12.
144 Krusi's Drawing-Books, Analytic Series, No. 7.
24 " " " Perspective Series, Nos. 9–12.
2 Keys to Andrews' Latin Exercises.

The difficult cases above cited will not often occur, and after a little practice the code will be easily worked, either in making up or filling orders. The compiler will be greatly obliged, however, for any suggestions for correction or improvement suggested by actual use. The saving, both in cost of telegraphing and in manual labor of writing, will be found to be very considerable.

The growing bulk of the EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE has made it impracticable to include maps, charts, dialogues, supplementary reading, individual numbers of literature series, teacher's aids or, in general, books not ordered in quantity for class use, but singly for individual use. If the demand justifies, it is proposed to issue a separate catalogue of such books, with the present code-system applied to them also.

☞ Be particular in ordering to specify OLD or REVISED editions, and to give the full name of the book, as quoted on this price-list.

AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE FOR 1887.

[PUBLISHERS' PRICES.]

NOTICE.—In this Catalogue only prices made by publishers themselves are given—retail, if retail, in first column; "net" (wholesale), if "net," in second column; where a "mailing" percentage is specified by the publisher, the "mailing price" is given in the retail column marked with an asterisk (), in addition to the wholesale price. When price-columns are left blank, the publisher failed, on application, to furnish price. A double asterisk () in price-columns designates books forthcoming. New books, issued since the publication of the Catalogue of 1886, are designated by a single asterisk () before title.

☞ In comparing prices or ordering at retail, private buyers should bear in mind that a percentage must be added to prices quoted at wholesale, to cover freight, handling, delivering, etc. Discounts on quantities vary on different lines, according to the kind of prices adopted by the respective publishers.

For subject classification (and for collective references to classic authors entered here under separate editors), see the second part of the Catalogue, following this main alphabet.

AUTHORIZED EDITION OF

GUIZOT'S

POPULAR HISTORY OF FRANCE.

FROM THE EARLIEST TIMES TO 1884.

Is now offered to the American public, the publishers having spared no pains or expense in its reproduction.

By a special arrangement with the European publishers, we secured electrotypes of the original wood-cuts by the celebrated artist, A. DE NEUVILLE, thereby securing impressions of the same fully equal to the originals. These two hundred illustrations are pronounced by some of the best art judges in the county to be the Finest Wood-Cuts ever Printed in America.

Persons wanting a good and reliable History of France, need have no hesitation in buying this, as it is the ONLY ONE of a popular nature, and by a STANDARD HISTORIAN, to be had in the English language. The publishers offer it confidently believing that it will supply a long-felt want. The world-wide reputation of GUIZOT is a sufficient recommendation to the work, and a guaranty of its being thoroughly correct and an intensely interesting history.

AUTHORIZED EDITION OF

GUIZOT'S

POPULAR HISTORY OF ENGLAND.

From the Earliest Times to the Reign of Queen Victoria.

HAVING completed the publication of GUIZOT'S POPULAR HISTORY OF FRANCE, which it is believed has proved the most successful work of its class ever issued in the world, and which has fully justified the lavish outlay expended upon its production, we now offer as a companion work, The Popular History of England, by the same distinguished author. This work was taken down from his lips by his daughter, Madame GUIZOT-DEWITT, and afterward carefully revised by him. We therefore take great pleasure in saying that the services of the best European artists were secured for the purpose of illustrating this crowning work of one of the greatest statesmen and historians which the world has ever produced. It is confidently believed that it will immediately take the position of THE STANDARD HISTORY OF ENGLAND, and it will possess the great advantage of being the ONLY COMPLETE ONE ever written by an eminent historian.

NEW EDITION

A NIHILIST PRINCESS

FROM THE FRENCH OF M. L. GAGNEUR.

"'A Nihilist Princess' is the most graphic and powerful delineation of the aims, methods, heroes and heroines of Nihilism which we have yet found. It is an absorbing story; much of it is exciting, some parts are thrilling. . . . Cannot somebody get a copy of this book to the new Czar."—Literary World, Boston.

"M. Gagneur is worthy to stand beside Turgenieff, and like him has thoroughly sounded the troubled waters of Russian society. . . . 'A Nihilist Princess' can scarcely be read with indifference, but must excite either sympathy, admiration or strong dislike. Its appearance is certainly opportune, and it throws fresh light upon one of the most difficult and burning questions of the day."—N. Y. Tribune.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE, .

CONTAINING OVER

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND WORDS.

EDITED AND COMPILED BY

HYDE CLARKE,

FROM THE DICTIONARIES OF WORCESTER, WEBSTER, WALKER, JOHNSON, RICHARDSON, MURRAY, AND LATHAM.

"The dictionary of Mr. Hyde Clarke is a master-key to the technical expressions peculiar to every art and branch of knowledge, besides being the most comprehensive dictionary extant of the English tongue, as it is spoken and written. After putting the work to very severe tests, we confidently say that no one who consults it will be disappointed. Not only is it deserving of the highest praise for its comprehensiveness, but it is worthy of study as an exercise in logic. We have been surprised and delighted at the terseness, conciseness, and precision of the definitions." — Lancet.

ALDINE SERIES OF NOVELS.

1. CROWN FROM THE SPEAR. By C. V. HAMILTON, author of "Woven of Many Threads," "Ropes of Sand." 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"It is a story of French domestic life and character, full of interest, and written in attractive style. The moral of the story is that the crown of happiness may be won after long struggle and suffering."—Herald.

"Coming from the pen of the author of 'Woven of Many Threads,' this story is sure of a warm welcome, nor will it altogether disappoint expectation. In some respects it is an improvement upon its predecessor, having a more compact and artistic form, and more powerful interest. But it is less natural and easy. There is more of the regulation novel, both in plot and characterization.' —Philadelphia Inquirer.

2. THE MARQUISE DE BRINVILLIERS. By EMILE GABORIAU, Author of "File No. 113," "The Count's Secret," "The Slaves of Paris," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Admirably written, each character finely drawn. It will be read with sorrow, with pleasure, and profit. Read it, and then we have no doubt you will add it to your collection of choice novels with as much pleasure as we do."—Lawrence American.

7. THE CLIQUE OF GOLD. Translated from the French of EMILE GABORIAU, author of "File 113," "Other People's Money," "Within an Inch of His Life," "The Widow Lerouge," "The Mystery of Orcival," &c. 1 vol. 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

It is strongly sensational, but the materals are managed with so strong a dramatic insight that one has not time or inclination to think of improbabilities. M. Gaboriau, is without a peer in this particular style of story."—Boston Gazette.

"Gaboriau's novels increase in power as we become familiar with his style."—Transcript.

8. OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY. By EMILE GABORIAU, author of "File No. 113," "The Clique of Gold," "Within an Inch of His Life," "The Widow Lerouge," "The Mystery of Orcival." 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Exciting throughout, the story appears not too morbid, but refined tastes, and should be read widely, as its merit is sterling."—Traveller.

"French in style, it is free from the grosser improprieties which appear to be generally tolerated in the novel-writing of that country."—Philadelphia Age.

12. MONSIEUR LECOQ. By EMILE GABORIAU, author of "File No. 113," "The Downward Path," "The Slaves of Paris." 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"It has spirit and action, united with power and depth of feeling. The characters are well delineated and strongly drawn, and the plot is well constructed and carried out."— Transcript.

"The plot is highly interesting, and is well developed, while an art atmosphere pervades the work, that shows both refinement and æsthetic appreciation on the part of the writer. The style is strong and vigorous, and contains scenes of great power."— Gazette.

15. GOOD LUCK. By the author of "Broken Chains." 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"An attractive and fascinating volume, with highly dramatic characters, clearly drawn and well sustained throughout, and containing many pages of absorbing interest. 16. WOVEN OF MANY THREADS. By C. V. HAMILTON, author of "Ropes of Sand," "Crown from the Spear." 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"As at present advised, we may venture to say that this novel, from the pen of an American lady, will meet with acceptance from the readers of fiction. It appears to me, as its name implies, intricate, or rather, multifarious, in plot and scenes; sufficiently romantic in tone and situations; with sharply outlined and vividly contrasted characters. The style is free and glowing, and the author, locating her story in Italy, finds opportunities to show familiarity with the land of song and art, of which she makes incidental use to heighten the interest of the tale."— Boston Transcript.

24. CHOISY. By JAMES P. STORY. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"We recommend the book for a pleasant companion or listless August days. While shedding a tear of sympathy over the fate of Nina Choisy, its salutary lesson cannot fail to produce lasting results."—Transcript.

30. SOMETHING TO DO. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.
A story of to-day, picturing characters, scenes, incidents, and accidents of the passing hour. Its rapid movement, interesting and varied conversations, and graceful style, will make 'Something to Do' very popular with readers of the best modern fiction.
"It contains many things of a very instructive character."—Boston Times.

31. MAUD OR NINA—Like Cures Like. By G. J. WHYTE-MELVILLE, author of "Katerfelto," "Holmby House," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.
"Two love stories of the approved order. Noble lords and ladies are mixed up in the plot."—Gazette.
"Sprightly and sensational."—Vox Populi.
"The most fastiduous may read Maud and Nina."—Journal.

32. ZELDA'S FORTUNE. By R. E. FRANCILLON, author of "Earl Dean," "Pearl and Emerald." 1 vol., 8vo. Illustrated. Paper, 30 cents.
"The secret of 'Fortune' is well kept until the last chapter of the book."—Age.
"This book shows us much power as Bulwer's early novels did."—Springfield Republic.
"Chas. G. Leland and Louise Chandler Moulton speak of it in very flattering terms."—Public.
"Zelda is so altogether unique a creation that she is outside of ordinary rules as applied to human conduct. Much of the charm of the book is in the novelty it furnishes in this direction. It is not difficult to believe that the author has made a close study of gypsy life. He has certainly painted it with power in the character of his heroine and one or two personages of his story."—Boston Gazette.

33. THE WICKED WOODS OF TOBEREEVIL. By MISS MULHOLLAND, author of "Hester History." 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.
"A tale of Irish life, legend and humor, sketched with vivacity, and replete with racy incident, stirring adventures, and well depicited feeling."—Inter-Ocean.
"A babe cursed the race of Finiston: 'Their riches should yield them no pleasure; they should perish with cold, and be gnawed by hunger: their lands lie waste, and their home decay; their daughters should never live past childhood,' &c."—L. C. M., in N. Y. Tribune.

34. THE FOE IN THE HOUSEHOLD. By CAROLINE CHESEBRO', 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.
"It is purely domestic in its character, instructive in its moral teachings, and possesses a subtle interest more absorbing than that which attaches to the conventional style of modern romances."—Press.
"A story of intense dramatic ifiterest, and is written with a force as well as a delicacy truly admirable."—Boston Post.

ALDINE SERIES OF NOVELS.

37. ALMOST A HEROINE. By the author of "Counterparts," "Charles Auchester," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"A fresh, stirring romance, full of breathing and burning vitality." — London Spectator.

"Unique in plot, incident and character — preëminently a LIVE book." — Athenæum.

38. ONE AND TWENTY. By the author of "Almost a Heroine," "Wildflower," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Happy as the Author has been in the selection of his subject, he has been still happier in his charming manner of treating it. He has made Love the dominant impulse of the young hearts that render this book the most delightful it has been our fortune to peruse." — Manchester Gazette.

39. WILDFLOWER. By the author of "One and Twenty," "Grandmother's Money," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Taking one of the most bewitchingly lovely creatures for his heroine, the author follows her through trials and adventures that bring out all her latent glorious qualities, and render her the cynosure behind which cluster the other living personages of the book." — Scotchman.

40. GRANDMOTHER'S MONEY. By the author of "Sweet Nineteen," "Ruth Garnett," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"In this book Mr. Robinson strikes a higher and grander note than most of our novelists. Nobly, too, does he carry through his swelling theme. Avarice was never painted with his hideous features, and never have the craving sycophants who cringe to wealth been so forcibly pilloried for all time." — British Echo.

41. SWEET NINETEEN. By the author of "Under the Spell," "The House of Elmore," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"In this gifted author's books we find the choicest spring flowers of fancy, and the matured and juicy wisdom of the autumn of the mind." — London Spectator.

42. UNDER THE SPELL. By the author of "Anne Judge, Spinster," "Ruth Garnett," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Most aptly christened. It keeps every reader waiting with eager eye and bated breath through every richly painted page — pages that give reality to some of the best creations that ever the novelist's cunning and busy brain has formed." — London Telegram.

43. THE HOUSE OF ELMORE; A Family History. By the author of "The Heirs of Derwentwater," "Old Noll," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Intensely melodramatic in conception and execution. A sombre pall envelopes the fortunes of this ill-starred family. The bodoing raven should have been their crest; but there are gentle, innocent creatures in these darksome pages that seem all the brighter and more beauteous by contrast with their gloomy surroundings." — London Review.

44. ANNE JUDGE, SPINSTER. By the author of "Old Noll," "Hands and Hearts," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Of all the pure, loveable creations, by either poet or novelist, ANNE JUDGE, as here delineated, is one of the purest and most loveable. Her tender devotion to her poor, old, broken father, is as beautiful in its way as that of Little Nell for that of her aged grandsire. Warp and woof is full of generous human sympathies." — Bristol Recorder.

45. RUTH GARNETT; or, The Loves of the Earl of Rochester. By the author of "The Secretary," "Shira," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper 30 cents.

"The author has happily taken some of the most interesting passages in English History, and woven them into a tale of amazing interest. The heroine enlists our warmest sympathies at the outset, and retains them to the last, as she passes through her strange career."—London Examiner.

46. THE HEIRS OF DERWENTWATER. By the author of "Shira," "Omi," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Unfortunately it is but seldom that our critical vision is blessed by the pages of a book so completely excellent. The action of the story is refreshingly lifelike; no tiresome discursive writing; onward, onward, the reader is pleasantly hurried, till the last brilliant sentence is arrived at."—London News.

47. OLD NOLL; or, The Days of the Ironsides. By the author of "One and Twenty," "Wildflower," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"No phase of English history affords such varied and effective pictures, either for the painter or the novelist, as that in which the Lord Protector swayed the iron sceptre over his native England. This book, while full of romantic incidents, gives an admirable idea of the conflicts between the Roundheads and Cavaliers."—Exeter Guardian.

48. HEADS AND HEARTS; or, My Brother the Colonel. By the author of "Grandmother's Money," "Sweet Nineteen," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"A book to be read, and read again, with renewed delight. The style is so clear that every description, every incident is revealed as plainly as the shells and pebbles through the translucent medium of a brook. The contest between heads and hearts, as in real life, is maintained with fierce earnestness."—North British Review.

49. THE SECRETARY; or, Circumstantial Evidence. By the author of "Almost a Heroine," "Under the Spell," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"The subtle web whose threads enmesh the leading character of this book is woven with a skill and deftness that reminds us of the plottings of a Fouché or the artful imaginings of a Poe. We watch with intense, unwearied interest, every slender filament that goes to strengthen the growing bonds."—Dark Blue.

50. SHIRA. By the auther of "Ruth Garnett," "One and Twenty," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper, 30 cents.

"Those Arabs of civilization, the gypsies, have given subjects for many brilliant works of imagination, but we know of no book in which the dusky denizens of forest and woodland have been so successfully conveyed into the regions of fiction as in this book. It is the book of the season; and, indeed, few seasons witness the advent of such a charming book."—Liverpool Mercury.

51. OMI. By the author of "Shira," "Under the Spell," &c. 1 vol., 8vo. Paper 30 cents.

"This work points a moral in a most striking style. It shows the career of one who, letting passion take the helm, is borne into all the furious storms that beset the fiery, untamed souls of too many ardent youths. The work is full of thrilling and saddening scenes; too full, alas! of truth to be gainsayed."—Belgravia.

HENRY ALTEMUS'

Family and Pulpit

BIBLES

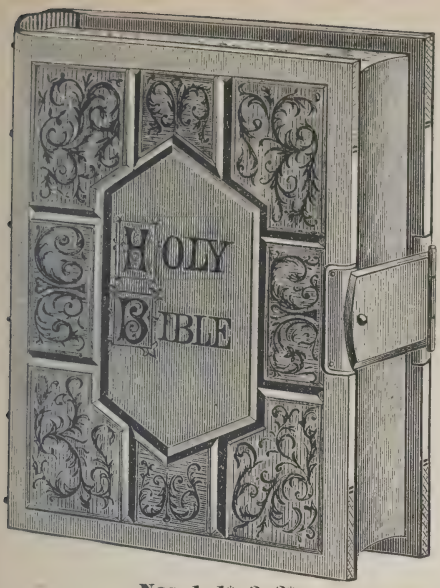
TO THE TRADE.

For some time past the Book Trade has felt and expressed the want of a line of Bibles divested of the many objectionable features in the way of flashy pictures and inappropriate engravings which at intervals have crept into the Sacred Volume, much to the disgust of the Bible-reading community; and, with this fact in view, we present to the Trade an entire, new line of Family and Pulpit Bibles, which for chasteness of engravings and beauty of letter-press and binding far exceeds any that has as yet been offered to the public.

In selecting the engravings and the collateral matter, great care has been exercised, that nothing should appear in these editions of the Bible that would offend the most fastidious mind; and, whilst they are offered at lower prices than any others heretofore published, the highest standard of finish, together with a uniform quality of paper, engravings, letterpress and binding, will be scrupulously maintained.

In offering this new line of Family and Pulpit Bibles, the Publisher desires to state that neither expense nor pains have been spared to make it the cheapest, the handsomest and the best ever offered to the American Book Trade.



The electrotype plates are the newest made, being cast from large, open letter, and the Bibles themselves are printed on fine white paper made expressly for these editions. The stamps, dies, tools, etc., are entirely new and original, and have been designed and executed by the best artists. The bindings are Ornate and London Antique, in French, German and Turkey moroccos, with cloth joints and laced in boards.

☞ Special attention is directed to our New Royal Quarto and New Imperial Quarto Oxford Editions, the first impressions from entirely new plates, cast from clear open type in London, expressly for our House. These editions are superior to any other Family or Pulpit Bibles published in the United States. They will be found fully described under the head of New Royal Quarto Edition, embracing Nos. 200 to 208, and* New Imperial Quarto Edition, embracing Nos. 250 to 254 and A to H*.*

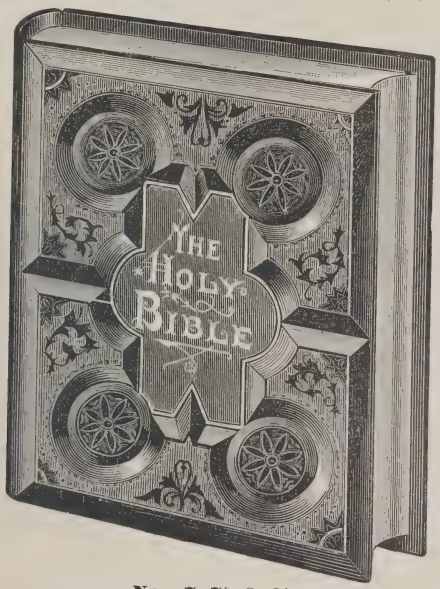
In addition to our superior Bibles, we manufacture a line of Photograph Albums for cabinet and carte-de-visite pictures, bound in fine silk plush, sealskin and Russia, and in moroccos with beautiful gold bevel mats, never before produced in this country (patent applied for), which is offered at prices that compare favorably with all foreign or domestic goods.

Our manufactory, besides being one of the most completely equipped in the country, possesses all the modern machinery and other appliances for producing superior work, and none but the best skilled workmen are or will be employed in any branch. Ample facilities are provided to enable us to fill all orders with care and promptness.



This department of our business is under the immediate personal supervision of the proprietor, Mr. Henry Altemus, who is well and favorably known throughout the country by reason of his practical experience in book-making—an experience which has been gained by many years' attention to that art. Mr. Altemus was the first in the United States to manufacture Quarto Bibles, he having been employed by Harper Brothers of New York to bind their celebrated pictorial edition; the fine editions of the Bible published by the Messrs. E. H. Butler & Co. of this city were also entrusted to his care. The long sojourn of Mr. Altemus in Europe enabled him to acquire many new and valuable ideas in the conduct of his chosen vocation, and of these our customers will have the full benefit.

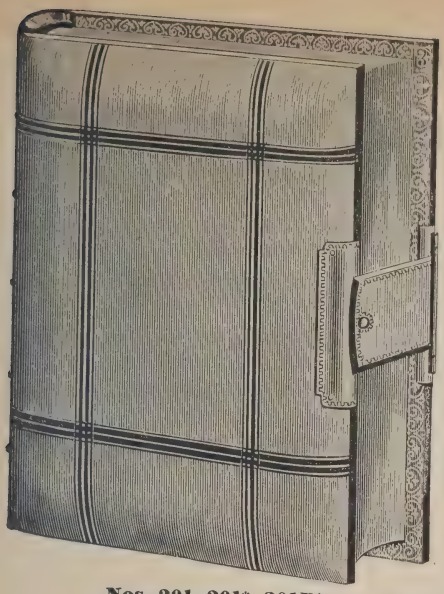
THE HANDSOMEST BIBLE PRINTED IN AMERICA.

Red-Line Edition, Carmine and Gold Edges.

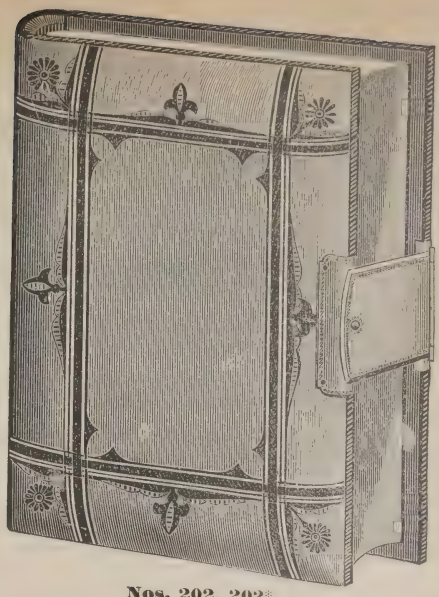
NEW IMPERIAL QUARTO BIBLE. Marg. Ref.

OXFORD EDITION, ENLARGED SIZE.



Printed on Fine Sized and Calendered Paper.

Containing the Old and New Testaments, Apocrypha, Concordance and Psalms of David in Metre, Fine Steel Line Engravings, etc.



This magnificent edition of the Holy Bible was also made in London. The plates were cast from clear, open Pica Type, expressly for our House, without regard to cost, and this can be said to be the only Oxford Edition printed in the United States. It contains upward of twenty thousand notes, critical and explanatory, selected from the great standard authors of Europe and America by the Rev. Walter McGilvray, D. D., Aberdeen. The Marginal References and the Copious Quotations from the most eminent Commentators and Biblical Scholars are pronounced by leading divines in this country to be of invaluable assistance to the clergyman in pursuit of his studies, and to the student and heads of families in quoting authorities, as well as to the casual reader.

These editions are bound in London Antique styles of a high standard designed in Europe, so as to conform to the latest London bindings, thereby virtually enabling us to offer to the Trade, Oxford Bibles at less than cost of importation. Many of the steel line engravings are landscapes in the Holy Land from the latest photographs taken from Nature, and can be relied upon as being accurate.

PSALM III.

The security of God's protection.

¶ A Psalm of David, *when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, [a]how are they increased that trouble me? many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, [b]There is no help for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art [c]a shield ‖for me; my glory, and [d]the lifter up of mine head.

4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and [e]he heard me out of his [f]holy hill. Selah.

5 [g]I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me.

6 [h]I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God; [i]for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek-bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 [k]Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience. 2 He reproveth and exhorteth his enemies. 6 Man's happiness is in God's favour.

¶ To the ‖chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness; thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; ‖have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and

PSALM VI.

David's complaint in his sickness.

¶ To the chief Musician on Neginoth ‖*upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

O [a]LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 [b]Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, [c]heal me; for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, [d]how long?

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake!

5 [e]For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning; ‖all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

PSALM CXLVI.

The Psalmist voweth perpetual praises to God.

PRAISE †ye the LORD. [a]Praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 [b]While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

3 [c]Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no ‖help.

4 [d]His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day [e]his thoughts perish.

5 [f]Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:

6 [g]Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:

7 [h]Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: [i]which giveth food to the hungry. [k]The LORD looseth the prisoners:

8 [l]The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: [m]the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

9 [n]The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: [o]but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 [p]The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

The Epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the PHILIPPIANS.

1 Paul and Timothy, [a]servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the [b]bishops and deacons: [2]Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, [4]always in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, [5]for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from the first day until now; [6]being confident of this very thing, that he which began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ: [7]even as it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because [c]I have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in my bonds and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace.
[8]For God is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. [9]And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; [10]so that ye may [d]approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto the day of Christ; [11]being filled with the [e]fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the progress of the gospel; [13]so that my thinking to raise up affliction for me in my bonds.

[18]What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein
I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. [19]For I know that this shall turn to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, [20]according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing shall I be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death.
[21]For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
[22][h]But if to live in the flesh,—if this is the fruit of my work, then [i]what I shall choose [j]I wot not. [23]But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ; for it is very far better:
[24]yet to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake. [25]And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your progress and joy [k]in the faith; [26]that your glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again. [27]Only [l]let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one soul striving [m]for the faith of the gospel: [28]and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; [29]because to you it hath been granted

PSALMS I.—V.

PSALM I.

1 THAT man hath perfect blessedness who walketh not astray
In counsel of ungodly men,
nor stands in sinners' way,
Nor sitteth in the scorner's chair:
2 But placeth his delight
Upon God's law, and meditates on his law day and night.

3 He shall be like a tree that grows near planted by a river,
Which in his season yields his fruit,
and his leaf fadeth never:
And all he doth shall prosper well.
4 The wicked are not so;
But like they are unto the chaff,
which wind drives to and fro.

5 In judgment therefore shall not stand such as ungodly are;
Nor in th' assembly of the just shall wicked men appear.
6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 15 Thereupon the people would have made him king. 16 But withdrawing himself, he walketh on the sea to his disciples: 26 reproveth the people flocking after him, and all the fleshly hearers of his word: 32 declareth himself to be the bread of life to believers. 66 Many disciples depart from him. 68 Peter confesseth him. 70 Judas is a devil.

AFTER these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him,

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves,

Christ asserteth CHAPTER VI. his power.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;
27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.
28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,
29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.
30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.
31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.
32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.
33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.
34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.
35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.
36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.
37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.
38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.
39 ¶ Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.
40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.
41 I receive not honour from men.
42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.
43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.
44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?
45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.
46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.
47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAPTER VI.

Five thousand fed.

AFTER these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.
3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.
4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.
5 ¶ When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?
6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.
7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.
8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him,
9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?
10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

ANDERSON & KRUM,

IMPORTERS—EXPORTERS—JOBBERS,

NO. 7 BOND STREET,

INTRODUCTORY.

THIS Catalogue has been prepared with the utmost care and it is sent out to represent us, our goods and prices, and to be constantly beside you as a reminder that we desire your orders.

No Catalogue can fully and truthfully convey to our customers our aims and purposes. New styles and novelties are daily added to our stock, and old styles become obsolete; constant changes in the prices of raw materials and labor cause fluctuations in the value of manufactured goods, but we will give our customers the lowest market prices, and endeavor to keep fully up to the times in our efforts to supply their wants promptly and satisfactorily.

By reason of our position as manufacturers of Stationers' Specialties, and our close business relations with the leading manufacturers, we have unsurpassed facilities for supplying the entire needs of dealers in Stationery and Stationer's Supplies. All goods not manufactured by us are selected with great care by experienced buyers. Our customers, therefore, obtain the advantages of making purchases from an already selected stock, and securing great economy in the time necessary to complete a selection of goods likely to prove the most salable.

Being located next door to Messrs. BAKER & TAYLOR, Publishers and General Jobbers of Books, and Messrs. D. APPLETON & Co., Publishers, and within a short distance of Mr. C. T. DILLINGHAM, Publisher and General Jobber of Books, we are enabled by co-operation with them to ship under one cover goods ordered from either house, and thus supply with promptness and economy everything needed by the Book and Stationery Trade.

Our Mail Order Department is in competent hands and orders received by mail are promptly attended to, and filled as accurately as possible; any article not in stock we get, if it can be found.

We trust you may find this Catalogue of benefit to you as a book of reference and an assistant in ordering, and that you will favor us with your frequent and liberal orders.

Very respectfully,

ANDERSON & KRUM,

No. 7 BOND STREET,

NEW YORK.

Portable Blackboard Stretcher.

The handiest thing in the world for Sunday-School workers, Day Schools, and Lecturers!

EXTENDED FOR USE.

FOLDED FOR CARRYING.

This Stretcher consists of a light frame upon which a common cloth or paper flexible blackboard is stretched like a drumhead when in use, so as to receive the crayon easily, while folding compactly for carrying or packing.

It is convenient, cheap, and durable, and, as it takes the place of the roller and moulding of the ordinary blackboard, adds little or nothing either to its weight or bulk.

Those on cloth thoroughly slated both sides, give two boards in one.

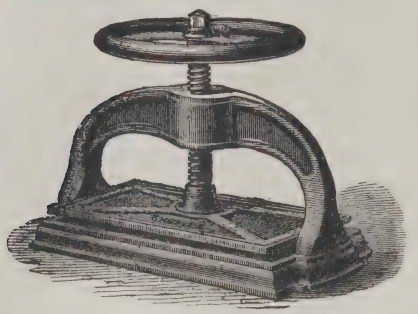
Use any of the standard copying inks, and give the book a little longer time in the press than the ordinary water book.

"Champion" Cash or Deed Boxes.

Each Box is secured by a "Champion" KEYLESS LOCK to be opened on 3 numbers, affording the security of an ordinary SAFE, but more quickly opened, as the lock is more simple.

The Boxes are of EXTRA HEAVY TIN, and in all details belong to the FINEST GRADE of Japanned ware.

The owner may set a new combination without removing the lock, but two cannot be set on the same unless made alike to order. Full directions go with each box. Order by number.



Extreme outside measures of all Boxes are ⅜ to ½ inch larger than sizes below. Knobs project ⅝ inch.

Flat Wrought-Iron Arch Office Press.

Size of Platen, 10x15..... $30 00

This Press is most carefully finished. The arch is of wrought iron and rests in brass foot-pieces, so arranged as not to turn around out of place, by this means preventing the guide-pins on ends of platen from being broken off.

The surface of bed-plate and platen are both made accurately true in planing machines. A Press thus finished gives a uniform pressure over the letter-book, and consequently makes perfect copies. The ends of the bed-plate are extended, giving a graceful appearance, and affording a convenient means of fastening the Press down with screws. The rim of the wheel is nickel plated.

We finish the Press in carmine and black, and maroon and black, and will supply them to order in carmine and gold bronze, carmine and olive, or other styles.

Large Steel Arch Press. For railroad, express, and transportation companies' use.

This Press is designed for the heaviest work in copying Manifests, Way-Bills, etc. The Arch is of steel; the bed-plate is operated by a wheel with handles on the rim.

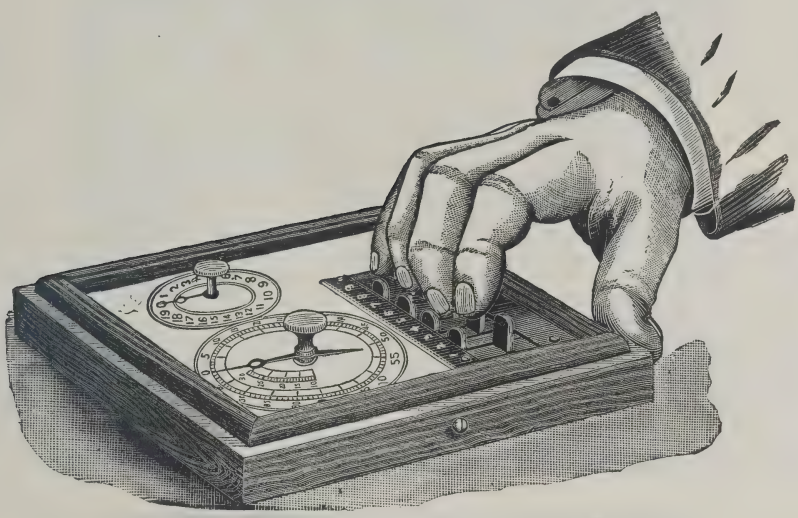
One "Lustral" Wire Rack like cut sent with each 3 dozen ink.

The points of superiority of this ink over all others for marking purposes are: No preparation of fabric to be marked is needed. It flows from any pen perfectly, it does not spread or "run," hence any one can write on muslin as easy as on paper; it will mark finer, neater and more legibly than any other marking ink ever made. It is put up in very showy and neat packages, in tin cases, with handsome Wire Racks, for show counter.

Per dozen.....$2 25
Per gross.....24 75



The Challenge Ink-Bottle Spout,

cut of which is shown above, has a detachable separate air chamber, which, upon being screwed back from the valve seat, thoroughly vents the bottle. It gives a full, steady stream. The syphon nature of the flow causes a suction during the process of pouring and prevents the passage of any liquid into the air chamber or out around the screw while in use. The bottle is thus kept clean, and as soon as the stopper is screwed down on the valve seat the air chamber is entirely on the outside and all evaporation is prevented. There is no spring to get out of order. Has no tube leading down into the liquid, which always leaves the bottle open to the air. Our Perfection Gasket makes a perfect seal and is not destroyed by the action of ink. Is the cheapest, strongest and cleanest spout ever offered the trade.

The Spalding Adding Machine.

This machine is cased in a light wooden box about eight inches square and one and a half inches deep, and upon removing the cover, the interior is seen to hold an enameled white surface, on which are two dials and the Key-board. The larger of the two dials is divided into 100 sections, and the smaller into 20 sections. The hand which moves around the first dial is the units pointer, and that which moves around the second dial is the hundreds pointer, and the two will accurately indicate the footing of a column of figures in any amount from 1 to 2,000.

The nine Keys on the board are numbered from 1 to 9, and are placed in regular order in two rows—2, 4, 6 and 8 being a little above the odd numbers, 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9.

The Keys are not pressed down into the box, but are drawn down toward the lower end of the box and spring back into place as soon as pressure is removed. The pulling of each Key on the board sends the units pointer along on its journey around the dial as many points as there are units in the number of the Key. Pull the 9 Key and the units pointer set at 0 goes to 9; pull the same Key again and the pointer moves to 18; pull the 1, 2, and 3 Keys now in rapid succession and the pointer goes consecutively with a hop, skip and jump, resting at 24. When the units pointer, keeping up its agile athletics, has reached its starting point at 0 again, there is a quick little motion of the hundreds pointer on the small dial, and 1, meaning 100, is recorded. The pointer has "dotted and gone one."

The machine's internal "clockwork" is more accurate than a human head can hope to be. It isn't troubled with malaria, nor is it ever larger in the morning than it was the night before. All the accountant has to do is to run his eye up or down the column of figures, pulling each respective Key as he reaches the corresponding figure. When one column is footed the pointer is set at the number to be "carried," and the footing of another column begun.

This machine is compact, neat and attractive in appearance, and so small that it does not encumber the desk. It will add columns of figures with unerring accuracy and surprising rapidity. There being only nine Keys, the fingers of one hand may quickly be trained to operate them correctly; and the operator can give entire attention to the column to be added, and add it as fast as the eyes can catch the figures. It will teach children to add. It will accurately record your petty cash sales. It is an excellent game counter. It will save the brain and lighten the labor of the expert accountant.

Linney's Newspaper File.

SUPERSEDING ALL NEWSPAPER FILES EXTANT.

Patented September 12th, 1882.

It is Compact, Convenient, Inexpensive, Simply Constructed, Easily Adjusted, and makes it easy to file Newspapers Consecutively.

Indispensable to LIBRARIES, READING-ROOMS, and all persons needing a Newspaper File for Constant and Easy Reference.

The above illustration accurately represents one of LINNEY'S NEWSPAPER FILES. The upper and lower halves of the frame are joined at one end by a very strong hinge; and at the other by an ingenious catch, that is automatic in its action, and enables one to open and close the file as quickly as he could open and close the blade of a pen-knife. This catch, and the manner of unlatching it, is shown more fully in the next illustration, representing a section of a file in the hands of a person who is in the act of opening it.

The advantages of this spring catch, or lock, will be fully appreciated by those who have been compelled to use any of the old-fashioned newspaper files.

The small rod between the upper and lower halves of the file is a smooth, round piece of black walnut, which is held in place by three strong spiral springs that press down upon it, causing it to grip firmly any newspaper that may be impaled upon the needle points, which are securely fixed to the lower half of the file, and extend through this rod, and through the center of the spiral springs.

This is just the File needed for Association Reading-Rooms, Libraries, Counting-Rooms, Newspaper Offices, Hotels, Restaurants, etc., and the only File on which newspapers can be filed in BOOK FORM, and also IN THE CENTER, with a sheet hanging down on either side, and at the same time accommodate supplements. This arrangement saves time and labor, as ten newspapers can be filed on this invention while one is being adjusted on others; and, with ordinary care, the newspapers will be in as good condition for preserving when removed as when placed on the File.

This File is made very strong, of well-seasoned black walnut, with brass trimmings, and will accommodate a large number of papers; but, in order to preserve it from damage, it is best to remove the dailies at least once each week, and the weeklies once each month.

Linney's Newspaper Files are made in a variety of sizes, the numbers corresponding with the maximum lengths in inches of papers that they will receive. For instance, No. 16, the smallest size, will accommodate a paper that is 16 inches in length; No. 26, a paper that is 26 inches long. Place on the File no newspaper which exceeds the small rod in length.

The sizes are 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, and 34 inches, and the price is the same for all sizes.

Price, $0.75 each.

Linney's Newspaper File Holder.

(Patented Sept. 12th, 1882.)

A New Invention, of Great Value to Curators of Libraries and Reading Rooms.

The above illustration represents a FILE AND A FILE HOLDER in actual use.

THE FILE HOLDER is made of black walnut, is a handsome piece of furniture, and is almost indispensable where files of several newspapers are kept, as it prevents the files from being injured while newspapers are being placed in them.

Only one File Holder is required for a Reading-Room, Office, or Library.

The Files may be hung upon hooks against the wall, or in racks; and when a newspaper is to be added, should be taken down, and placed in the grooved top of the stand, B B; then unclasp the catch, raise the upper rod, and swing it into the hook E. Lay the newspaper on the needle points D, C, D; replace the upper rod, and the File is then ready for use.

Price of LINNEY'S NEWSPAPER FILE HOLDER, taken apart, and securely packed for shipment, $7.50.

Cahoone's Improved Ever-Ready Mucilage Bottle.

It will always keep the mucilage in a perfectly limpid condition, as if in a bottle corked and sealed; so that using it many times a day, once a week—or once a year—you will find the brush soft and the mucilage in good condition.

It is so obviously scientific in principle, and practical in its working, that it only needs to be tried.

The Superiority of this Bottle over all others is that, if properly Covered, its Contents Never Dry.

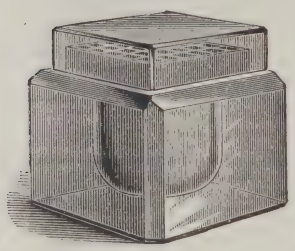
Improved Liquid Glue.



For Household, and ALL other purposes where a reliable article is required, this Liquid Glue will prove to be the best and STRONGEST ADHESIVE KNOWN, and is the only article so prepared as to answer as a GLUE, A CEMENT and a MUCILAGE. It sticks with such tenacity that Crockery, Glassware and household ornaments of ALL kinds repaired with it will not separate, even if washed in hot water. It is also largely used for sealing tops of bottles, fruit jars, &c. It will keep for years in ANY CLIMATE and not sour, mold or have any unpleasant odor. Unlike other glues, it never becomes thick or requires heating, ever in winter, so that it is ALWAYS READY for USE. It is very convenient, as it can always be used cold, and on cold stock. It has no waste, so will go farther than other adhesives, and will resist dampness better than any other glue.

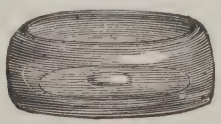
THE "ELECTRIC"

Envelope Moistener and Sponge Cup.

A COMPLETE DEVICE FOR SEALING AND STAMPING ALL CLASSES OF LETTERS WITHOUT APPLYING THE TONGUE.

SIMPLE! RELIABLE! DURABLE!



An indispensable article for the Counting Room. Especially adapted for Banking Houses, Railroad, Telegraph and Express Companies, and Manufacturers generally.

The device consists of a solid flint glass sponge cup, constructed with a slit through its side near the bottom. Directly inside the opening, extending half way across the bottom, is a pointed platform, upon which a wet sponge rests, the object of the points being to keep the outside of the envelope flap perfectly dry, while the inside, passing under the sponge, receives the desired moistening to seal the envelope perfectly. To apply postage stamps, simply draw the corner, or upper edge of the envelope, through the slit.

The cups are made of crystal, amber and blue glass, of sufficient weight (1½ lbs.) to prevent sliding when in use, each cup provided with a suitable sponge, packed in a box with full directions.

Perfection Pen Rack.

This Pen Rack is an improvement on the ordinary well-known Spiral or Universal pen racks, each coil of the wire spring is permanently but loosely held to the base by passing through loops, which are formed on the base, as shown in the cuts, thus preventing the springs from being crowded to one end and otherwise making the whole structure much more substantial and durable.

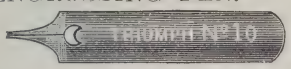
KERNER STYLOGRAPHIC PENS.

No. 1. Pioneer Pen, Plain Rubber Barrel. This pen is made of the best quality of vulcanized rubber, highly polished; the points are platinum alloyed with iridium, and are warranted harder than those of any other pen at the same price in the market. Pocket size, $1 00 Commercial size, $1 50.

No. 2. Ruling Pen, Red-Mottled Rubber Barrel. This pen, on account of its color, is especially adapted for ruling purposes; the red-mottled case serving to indicate that it contains red ink. Mistakes are thus avoided, while the pen possesses the advantage of producing a uniform line without blotting or soiling the ruler. Points platinum and iridium (warranted.) Pocket size, $1 25. Commercial size, $1 75.

No. 3. Barrel handsomely engraved in various designs. This pen is preferred by many on account of its attractive appearance and the engraved barrel. The points are harder than in the No. 1 pen; hence, will wear much longer. Pocket size, $1 25. Commercial size, $1 75.



No. 4. Standard Pen, Engraved Barrel, with Gold Bands. This is unmistakably the handsomest and best pen for the money that has ever been offered for public favor. The point is of the hardest platinum and iridium. No efforts have been spared to make this a STANDARD PEN, and one which will be the most desirable for general use. It is embellished with mountings and ornamentation sufficient to present a rich and pleasing appearance, and it is unsurpassed for reliability and uniformity in writing. It is most desirable for every one in want of a good and serviceable stylographic pen, and is the proper pen for the dealer to push. In plain box, $2 00. In morocco case, $2 25. Commercial, in Morocco case, $2 75.

No. 5. Engraved Barrel, Gold Bands, Chased Gold Point Cover. This pen is highly ornamental, consisting of engraved barrel, gold bands, and elaborately chased gold point cover. Enclosed in a morocco case with filler and directions, it makes a very handsome as well as useful holiday or birthday present. $5 00. Commercial size, $5 50.

COMMERCIAL PENS HOLD ⅓ MORE INK THAN POCKET SIZE.

The Kerner Ink Eraser.

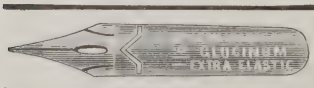
Put up one dozen in a package.

This ERASER is forged from the finest quality English steel, and, being highly tempered, holds an edge longer than any other heretofore in use.

It is easily sharpened, without injury to the cutting edges, for the reason that it is only necessary to apply the flat surface to an oil-stone.

The convex back provides a convenient and beautiful burnisher for polishing, without soiling the paper, after an erasure has been made.

The polished handle forms a convenient paper-cutter and envelope-opener.



It is provided with a shield for the protection of the blade, and may be conveniently carried in the pocket.

Per dozen.....$6 00

Victor Noiseless Slates.

The above cut represents the Victor "C" Slate. It is covered with a bright scarlet binding, manufactured especially for this slate, with muffling cords WOVEN in it, and is sewed on the frame by a machine exactly as the binding is sewed on a piece of heavy cloth. This is unquestionably the very best CHEAP, noiseless slate ever offered, and is designed to take the place of the common "D" Slate.

Make a trial order and you will not be disappointed.

Hyatt's Patent Slates.

Wire Bound. Machine Smoothed.

School Slates.

Full Size Section of Frame.

Counting House Slates.
With Patent Reversible Hinges.

While all others are shaved by hand, these are smoothed by machinery, and thus are of uniform thickness and have a perfectly smooth and even surface. The frame is the lightest as well as the most durable that is made, being secured by a Bessemer steel wire passing in a groove entirely around it. The writing surface measures the full size for which the slate is sold, and which is stamped on the frame. All the ordinary slates are under size. For example, in a 7x11 slate these have 8¾ square inches more ciphering surface.

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen.

PATENTED FEB. 12 AND NOV. 4, 1884.

The supply of ink is regulated automatically by the act of writing. The air goes up through the groove on the side next to the pen while the ink passes down in the fissures and next to them in the bottom of the groove, thus permitting a flow as free and continuous as a running stream while writing, but which stops when the pen is lifted from the paper. No shaking is required, for when the fissures are once thoroughly wet they never become empty or dry until the last drop of ink is drawn from the reservoir.

Records, accounts and letters written with this pen have a uniform color of ink on every page and line because the ink is fresh and is laid on more evenly than with a dip pen.

It is the simplest, cleanest, readiest and most easily managed of all the fountain pens.

There are no air-valves or other machinery, and consequently nothing to get out of order or to be adjusted or regulated.

When the cap is removed it is ready to write, and when the writing is done the cap can be replaced and the pen is ready for the pocket.

With one filling it writes, according to the size of the holder, from 10 to 40 hours continuously; and any desired kind of color of good fluid ink can be employed.

It can be filled and left months without being used, and when opened the ink will flow as readily as if just filled.

The Prices in this table are for plain smooth black holders.

a. Outside diameter in inches.
b. Length in inches when closed. They are about 1 inch longer when ready for writing.
*A drop of ink is sufficient to write from 100 to 500 words, according to the fineness of the pen and the handwriting. The average writer puts 150 written words on a page of note paper, or 225 on a page of foolscap, and in an hour uses about five drops of ink, writing from 1,000 to 1,500 words, while his pen travels about an eighth of a mile.

Dry Slate Eraser No. 10.

The Slate Eraser is used dry on a slate, just as a blackboard eraser is used on a blackboard; and it does the work perfectly. A little pressure in using gives a better result. By its use, the slate is kept free from that greasy appearance frequently seen on slates. No water bottles or sponges are needed by the scholars. If the eraser becomes filled with dust by continued use, the dust may be removed by striking the flat surface against the slate a few times. Never wet the erasers, as wetting renders them hard and spoils them.

In gross boxes, per gross.....$1 20

The "Gem" Penwiper is just right in size from centre to outer edge for the ordinary school pen, and, being made of chamois, it takes right hold of the pen, and leaves it perfectly dry. They are made in a large variety of colors, and put up in half-gross boxes, and are very attractive goods. They are made of bright-colored leather, and are about two inches in diameter.

The Elastic Pencil and Bouquet Holder.

Made of nickeled wire, in spiral form. The only holder which will take a stylographic pen EASILY and hold it securely. Will also hold one or several pencils or stylographic pens equally as well.

Can be safely attached to the vest over the pocket, so that the pencils will go through the holder and into the pocket, the pencil points being protected thereby.

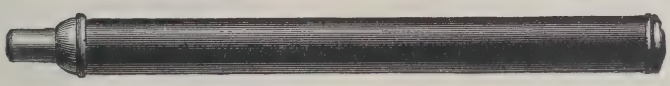
Can also be used as bouquet holder, scarf holder, or in any place where a secure fastener is wanted.

Put up two dozen on a handsome display card, and twelve cards in a box. Price per dozen, 50 cents.

Patent Gazelle Horn Penholders.

Handsome, unique, substantial. Made from the solid tips of selected horn, turned down to the proper sizes for penholders, and highly polished.

To secure only the solid portions, the horns have to be cut into short pieces; these are joined together to make the desired lengths by steel screws running through the centre of the penholder, rendering it as firm and solid as though made of one solid piece. These pieces being of different colors of horn make a very pretty effect when thus joined together.



The tips for holding the pen are made of such a shape that they receive the pen easily and yet hold it firmly, and being riveted to the holder, can not push in nor drop out—a great fault with other penholders.

They are put up, one dozen of a size, on a handsome display card.

Hyatt's Patent Game Register and Trump Indicator.

This useful little novelty consists of a back, the size of an ordinary playing card, on which three discs, one large and two small, are made to revolve by touching their edges at an indentation in the back for that purpose. The large disc shows each suit in rotation, only one, The Trump Suit, appearing at a time (thus enabling the players to have the trump always before them while playing). In the same manner each small disc shows plainly printed figures from 1 to 10, one disc showing the number of points and the other the games played.

Ready Companion.

A wooden cylinder, one end of which is closed by a ball, the other by a plug, the latter controlling a spring, which in turn regulates the ball. Pressure applied to the plug throws the ball away from the opposite end of the tube giving free exit to the contents of the "Companion." The exterior of the "Companion" is decorated in colors, while each one contains a lead pencil, a slate pencil in wood, and a pen-holder. It is very neat and convenient for the use of school children.

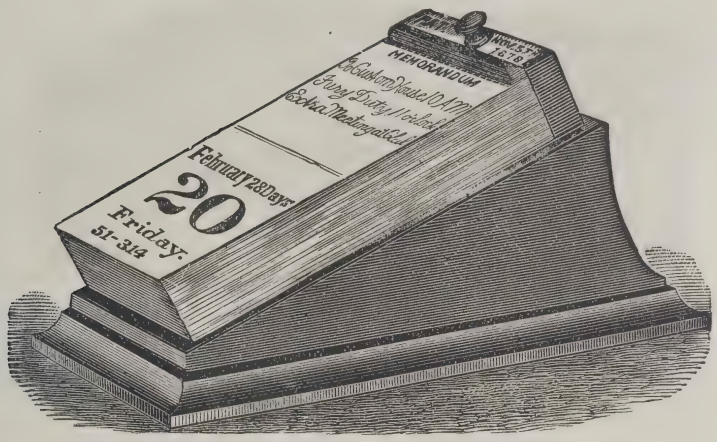
Daily Memorandum Calendars.

The Daily Memorandum Calendar consists of three hundred and sixty-five leaves, which are made of thin writing paper, so that ink may be used. The upper part of each leaf is left blank for memoranda, and on the lower part is the day of the week, the month, and the date in plain letters and large figures. The leaves are connected only at the top, so that they can be opened like a book, and easily written on from January to December. They are perforated at the top, so that they can be torn off as each day passes. The pad shows the number of days in each month; and, for the convenience of business men in figuring interest, on every date how many days of the year have passed and how many are to come. The back, or last leaf of the pad, is made of cardboard, and has on its face the calendar of the current year, and on its back the calendar of the coming year.

At the end of each year the old pad, or its remaining stump, is to be removed from the stand, and the new pad for the ensuing year put in its place.



Pen-Rack Stand No. 01, $9 per Doz.

This stand is in the form of a pen-rack, with a memorandum file attached. The pad is connected by a screw to a revolving rod, so that it can be brought into a convenient position for writing by placing a pencil or penholder under the pad on the projecting prongs, or so turned as to show the calendar of the ensuing year on the back.

The file combined with this stand is for the purpose of filing up notices, etc., relating to memorandums made, such as life insurance notices, cards of appointments, etc.

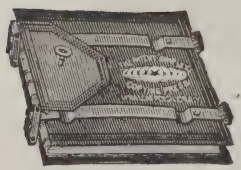
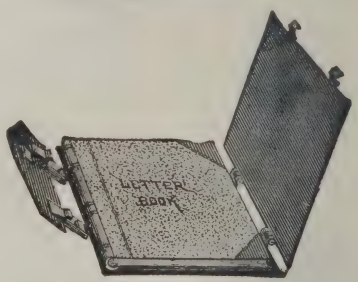
Mullins' Paper Weights.

Composed of metal, covered with leather and other fabrics.



Patented March 16, 1886.

Handsome and durable. For the office, counting-house and draughtsman. The great weight in proportion to bulk, cleanliness, and ease of handling, make them the most desirable paper weights that have ever been offered to the public. Can have name, business address, etc., stamped on in gold.



No. 1 and No. 1 A are especially adapted to draughtsmen. They do away to a great extent with the use of Thumb Tacks. Are sufficiently heavy to keep the paper or cloth in place, and being composed of lead the drawing instruments are not injured by being struck against it.

The New "Simplex" Copying Press.

Closed.

Open.

A new device for copying letters.

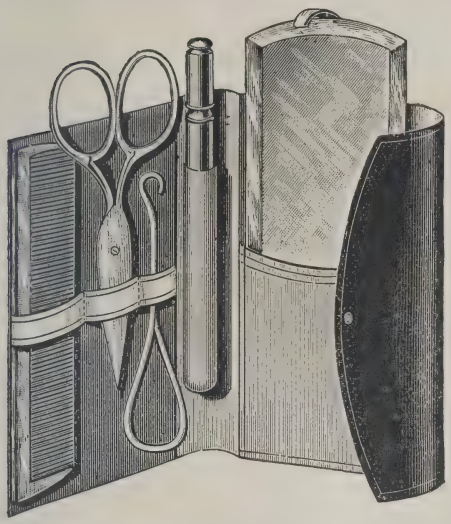
The "Simplex" Copying Press is in the form of the cover of a book, and closes with two clasps, somewhat like those of an album. These clasps are so constructed that the simple action of closing them produces a sudden and powerful pressure, equal in force to that of the screw itself.

The following are the advantages of the "Simplex" Press:

1. A saving of half the time in copying. The copying book remaining all the time loose within the metal cover, it has not to be taken in and out for every copy, as is the case with an ordinary press. For this reason the "Simplex" is especially adapted for all offices where many letters have to be copied.

2. The press does not occupy much more space than the copying book itself, and there is no necessity for a copying table.

3. When the press is closed it presents the appearance of a book, and can be easily removed from place to place. It is therefore well adapted for the use of private persons, ladies or gentlemen, and for traveling; and being of neat appearance, can be kept on the table of any room, even on that of the library or drawing-room, while the old press with its massive table is only fitted for an office or special room.



4. Another great advantage, which no other system affords, is that the press can be locked with the copying book inside, so that complete privacy is secured.

5. No amount of manual strength is required to use it, its action being so simple and perfect, and many letters can be copied at the same time.

6. In addition to all these great advantages it offers that of extreme cheapness.

ROGET'S THESAURUS OF ENGLISH WORDS AND PHRASES. Classified and arranged so as to facilitate the expression of ideas and assist in literary composition. By Peter Mark Roget, M.D., F.R.S. The purpose of this work is to supply, with respect to the English language, a desideratum hitherto unsupplied in any language: namely, a collection of the words it contains and of the idiomatic combinations peculiar to it, arranged according to the ideas they express, rather than in the alphabetical order of a dictionary, but with a copious index, making access easy.

TIMES OFFICE,
PORT HURON, Mich.

Gentlemen:—Last November I purchased one of the Johnson Revolving Book Cases for my own use, and it attracted so much attention that I subsequently ordered half a dozen more for other parties. I have found it very convenient, and all who have purchased the Case here are delighted with it.

Truly yours,
L. A. SHERMAN.

NEW YORK CITY.

Gentlemen:—I have two Revolving Book Cases, one in the office in this city and one at home; one made by you, the other of another make. I selected the ones I preferred—selected yours because I preferred it to some others. These cases I use every day and many times a day, and find them such a convenience that if I could not buy one already made I would certainly order one to be made. They save a busy man a great deal of time and in that way pay for themselves in twelve months.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN M. FERRIS.

2 TIMON OF ATHENS.

Imprison'd, and in scarcity of friends,
I clear'd him with five talents: greet him from me;
Bid him suppose some good necessity
Touches his friend, which craves to be remember'd
With those five talents ;—[to Flav.] that had, give it these fellows
To whom 'tis instant due. Ne'er speak or think
That Timon's fortunes 'mong his friends can sink.
Flav. I would I could not think it ; that thought is bounty's foe ;
Being free itself it thinks all others so. [Exeunt.

ACT III.

SCENE I.—Athens. A Room in Lucullus's House.

Flaminius waiting. Enter a Servant to him.

Serv. I have told my lord of you : he is coming down to you.
Flam. I thank you, sir.

Enter Lucullus.

Serv. Here's my lord.
Lucul. [aside] One of Lord Timon's men ! a gift, I warrant. Why, this hits right ; I dreamt of a silver basin and ewer to-night.—Flaminius, honest Flaminius ; you are very respectively welcome, sir. —Fill me some wine. [Exit Servant.]—And how does that honourable, complete, free-hearted gentleman of Athens, thy very bountiful good lord and master ?
Flam. His health is well, sir.
Lucul. I am right glad that his health is well, sir. And what hast thou there under thy cloak, pretty Flaminius ?
Flam. Faith, nothing but an empty box, sir ; which, in my lord's behalf, I come to entreat your

Though there are many editions of Shakespeare, the publishers feel confident that there is a real want for one smaller in size and price than any which has yet appeared. PUBLICATIONS OF

A. C. ARMSTRONG & SON.

AINGER, ALFRED.—New Edition of Lamb's Works. See Lamb, page 6.

ARMSTRONG'S Primer of United States History for School and Family Use, with (6) six new and beautifully colored maps from original drawings. 1 vol., square 16mo, cloth. 14th edition..... $0 50

"A model historical primer, full in its statements, discriminating in its selection of events, clear and direct in its style, and comprehensive in its general outline of American affairs. The value of such a book is apparent at a glance. Of large histories of the United States there is no lack, but of shorter histories there is great need. It represents an amount of work of which its brief pages give no adequate impression."

While it gives the principal events of English history, and will be useful in connection with a larger work, it will also form an admirable introduction to an intelligent theory of the History of the United States."

WHITE'S STUDENT'S MYTHOLOGY.

A Compendium of Greek, Roman, Egyptian, Assyrian, Persian, Hindoo, Chinese, Thibetan, Scandinavian, Celtic, Aztec and Peruvian Mythologies, in accordance with Standard Authorities.

ARRANGED FOR THE USE OF SCHOOLS AND ACADEMIES.

By C. A. WHITE,

Author of "White's Classical Literature," etc.

The Student's Mythology is a practical work, prepared by an experienced teacher, and designed for pupils who have not yet entered, or who, like the greater number of those attending our schools and academies, are not likely to enter upon a regular classical course.

Great care has been taken to avoid all taint of pagan corruption of a nature to offend delicacy, while enough information is given to ensure a clear understanding of all allusions to mythology met with in ordinary readings.

TESTIMONIALS FROM EMINENT TEACHERS.

I.

"A book every way fitting to be placed in the hands of the class for whom it was prepared. In its pages nothing will be found of a nature to offend delicacy, while its limpid style and its numerous poetical and historical illustrations cannot but attract the student, improve the taste, and inform the mind. It is learned without being heavy, and comprehensive without being lengthy."

II.

"In my opinion Part II. alone should secure for the work an extensive use; embracing, as it does, in so convenient and attractive a form the mythologies of Egypt, Assyria, Persia, Hindostan, China and Scandinavia, besides the Celtic mythology, which, with its learned Druids, its peculiar temples, its strange deities, etc., etc., is to many, the most interesting of all."

III.

To the Author:

"I am most happy in embracing this opportunity to offer my sincere thanks for the excellent work which you have produced. We have at last a 'Mythology' that can be placed in the hands of youth without endangering their innocence, and therein you have accomplished a great good. I think that the book needs only to be known to insure its very general use."

IV.

Addressed to the Author:

"We gratefully acknowledge the reception of a copy of your nicely arranged 'Mythology.' We believe it to be really and indeed an acquisition. Its value is apparent at a glance. Everything that is necessary to give youth a knowledge of pagan religion seems embodied in the book, divested of the grossness which surrounds the original records, and which are so often retained in the works of Christian writers. There can be no doubt that it is better for our girls and young women to be kept ignorant of these impurities. We heartily recommend your work."

"The 'Student's Mythology" by C. A. White, Principal of a New York city grammar school, is an admirably arranged text-book on a subject of fascinating interest—a text-book, and a good deal more—for while it has the form of question and answer, it gives in simple and felicitous phrase the substance of those charming, dreamy stories subtly woven of half serious and half frolic fancy around some slender spires of forgotten fact, which cobwebbed the morning of the world. The sensuous details, which would be manifestly improper in a work designed for young students, are wisely omitted; yet enough is retained to preserve the essential features and poetic expression of the old myths, which constitute the staple of the earliest literature and the ornament of all that follows. It gives, in the briefest compass, all that one needs to know of them in order to understand the frequent allusions to them in modern as well as ancient literature, and is more portable and available than any dictionary we know of. It gives an account, also, of the poets of classic fable, with the heroes celebrated by them, the sybils, oracles, classic games, and the Greek drama, with brief notices of the myths of other nations, and an account of the classic authors to whom reference is made. The author prepared this book and used it in manuscript three years before its publication, thus testing its worth in the only proper way. If those who prepare text-books for use in schools would adopt this wise way, we should have far better text-books and fewer of those changes of books which cause so much deserved complaint."

SUPLÉE'S TRENCH ON WORDS.

By RICHARD CHENEVIX TRENCH, D.D.,

Archbishop of Dublin.

FROM THE LATEST REVISED ENGLISH EDITION. WITH AN EXHAUSTIVE ANALYSIS, ADDITIONAL WORDS FOR ILLUSTRATION, AND QUESTIONS FOR EXAMINATIONS.

By THOMAS D. SUPLÉE,

Head Master of Courtlandt Place School, Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y.

It is now 26 years since Dean Trench's book "On the Study of Words" was first given to the public. Originally addressed to the pupils of the Diocesan Training School at Winchester, in the shape of lectures, and retaining that form in publication, the book was but poorly adapted for use in the school room, as a text-book. The editor has long deplored this, in common with many other teachers; hence, no apology is needed for the appearance of the present volume. The advantages claimed for it, over all other editions, are as follows:

1. A complete and exhaustive analysis of the revised text has been added.

2. A set of questions has been prepared, designed not only to call forth the facts stated by the author, but also to follow up lines of thought suggested by him.

3. At the end of each lecture a list of words has been added, illustrating its various topics, and intended to encourage original research on the part of the pupil.

The new arrangement of the text, analysis and questions, cannot fail to be of great assistance both to the teacher and pupil. As these helps have already been of great service to the editor in the work of teaching, it is hoped that they may also assist others, now that they are associated with the lectures.

Professor HUNT, of Princeton College, writes: "The book supplies a need which each teacher of Trench has been obliged to heretofore meet in his own way, and serves to add much to the usefulness of a work already full of profit in the study of language."

The National and New England Journal of Education says: "The editor of this volume, in common with other teachers, felt the need of making this work more practical as a text-book for schools, and in the present volume has added greatly to its usefulness. The indexical outline of the lectures is very valuable, on account of its fullness; this feature alone doubles the original value of the work. The blackboard exercises, at the close of each lecture, have been prepared with great care, and will be found extremely practical in the hands of an intelligent teacher. The questions on the chapters will be valuable tests of the pupils' knowledge, and the additional words for illustration are intended to lead to original thought and investigation. The editor shows thorough scholarship, and an enthusiastic love for the study of words, and has performed a work for American teachers and students for which they should be profoundly grateful."

CONINGTON'S ÆNEID.

THE ÆNEID OF VIRGIL

Translated into English Verse (Scott's Ballad Metre).

By JOHN CONINGTON, M.A.,

Late Professor in the University of Oxford.

An elegant edition, in large, clear type, on toned paper. 1 vol., crown 8vo, 506 pages.

Net price, $1 50.

"This version is unique in its metre, that of Scott's ballads being employed, which imparts a wonderful life and vivacity, and will introduce the work to a class of readers by whom it has been heretofore overlooked. The London Examiner characterizes it as 'the very lightest, freshest, and yet most accurate metrical translation of Virgil that has been added to our literature'; the Athenæum says that 'besides being a faithful copy of the original, it has all the freshness, life, and beauty of genuine poetry'; the Saturday Review, 'that among the many good translations, there has been none more true to the spirit and letter of the original author than this'; and the Westminster Review styles it 'eminently graceful and scholarlike.'

"After such commendations from such sources, little more need be said. The mechanical execution is very rich and attractive, and reflects credit on the house that publishes it."—New York Evening Post.

REVISED BY THE QUEEN.

The Story of the Life of Queen Victoria.

Told for Boys and Girls all over the World. By W. W. TULLOCH, son of the late Principal Tulloch, Private Chaplain to the Queen. 12mo vol., with Portrait, neatly bound in cloth, $1.25.

Besides the acquaintance with the private life of the Palace, the volume receives added interest from the fact that it has been revised by the Queen's own hand. It is appropriate that the story of a royal life, so singularly pure and beneficent, should be told in a form suited to youthful minds; and her majesty's personal supervision is a guarantee no less of the accuracy of the history than of its fitness to describe the events of her home life.

New Fairy Tales. From Brentano.

Told in English by KATE FREILIGRATH KROEKER, and Pictured by F. CARRUTHERS GOULD. With full-page colored illustrations. Quarto volume, handsomely bound in illuminated covers, $1.50; in cloth, full gilt side and back, $2.00; cloth, full gilt side and edges, $2.50.

The success attained on both sides of the Atlantic by Mme. Kroeker's Fairy Tales from Brentano has led her to issue a new series of translations from the same author. The volume opens with one of the most charming fairy tales ever told—the story of Gockel, Hinkel, and Gackeleia, which is marked by a happy combination of freshness and quaint humor with true beauty and poetic grace. And the other tales are not inferior in interest.

Charles Lamb's Letters.

With Introduction and Notes. By Rev. Alfred Ainger, editor of "Lamb's Collected Works," with a Steel Portrait hitherto unpublished. 2 vols., crown 8vo, red smooth cloth, gilt top, $3.00. (Ready in September.)

The Letters of Charles Lamb are in themselves an autobiography. The "Essays of Elia" tell us of his childhood and youth, his school-time and his holidays, his family and his home surroundings, and of the books which fostered his genius; but the Letters complete the story. There is hardly an incident in Lamb's life that the Letters do not deal with, and they are the more interesting because of the circle to which they were addressed. Coleridge, Southey, Wordsworth, Manning, Leigh Hunt, and Hazlett; not to mention Bernard Barton, Godwin, Barry Cornwall, and Thomas Hood, were all in it, and to each Lamb wrote in a different strain, thus revealing to us points in the character of his friends, as well as much of his own nature.

NOW COMPLETE:

Charles Lamb's Collected Works.

Edited, with Introduction and Notes, by Rev. Alfred Ainger. 5 vols., crown 8vo, with two Steel Portraits, red smooth cloth, gilt top, $7.50.

I. Essays of Elia. II. Poems, Plays, and Miscellaneous Essays. III. Mrs. Leicester's School, the Adventures of Ulysses, and other Essays. IV. and V. Lamb's Letters. $1.50 each vol. Sold separately or in Sets.

Romanism and the Reformation, from the Standpoint of Prophecy.

By Rev. H. Grattan Guinness, author of "Light for the Last Days," "Approaching End of the Age," etc. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

Contents—Daniel's Foreview of Romanism. John's Foreview of Romanism. Paul's Foreview of Romanism. Interpretation of this Triple Prophecy in Pre-Reformation Times, and its Practical Effect. Its Interpretation in Post-Reformation Times, and Practical Effect. Double Foreview of the Reformation in Old Testament Types, and New Testament Prophecies.

A NEW WORK ON PALESTINE.

Palestine in the Time of Christ.

By Edmond Stapfer, D.D., Professor in the Protestant Theological Faculty of Paris. Translated by Annie Harwood Holmden. With Maps and Plans. Full crown 8vo, cloth, $3.00.

This work is a series of studies of the social and religious life of the Jews in the first century. Its aim is to throw light on the contemporary history of the New Testament, and thus to facilitate an intelligent study of the Gospels.

London Athenæum says: "Dr. Stapfer may be congratulated on the successful way in which he has accomplished his task. He has studied the diversified topics he treats of, and has generally drawn his materials from the best authorities, arranging it in lucid order. Few guides will be found more useful in surveying the varied details into which a comprehensive subject leads him.

There is no English book that can be put beside it as occupying the same ground. The results of much reading and learned research are presented in a popular dress. After a careful perusal of all its contents we are able to commend the volume."

BRANCH—THE NATIONAL SPEAKERS. By OLIVER E. BRANCH. See National Speakers.

The standard orators and authors, whose works are fitted to declamation, furnish a new supply of selections, and those pieces by recent writers which have found most favor with elocutionists and public readers, have been given a place in these books, which are graded to meet the needs of persons of all ages.

"One great merit of the books is the fact that the pieces are nearly all new."—Boston Transcript.

"The skill in choosing prose pieces is quite noticeable. They are fresh, short, pointed, simple, well-arranged, and within the comprehension and speaking power of young people. If we judge aright, they will very materially aid the teacher in developing really good speakers."—Journal of Education.

"They are good books and will have the approval of all who use them. The National Advanced Speaker has an admirable collection of declamations; in some respects the best that has been compiled for the use of advanced students."—Henry A. Frink, Prof. Logic and Oratory, Amherst College.

Containing a development of the verb; illustrations of idioms; lessons on the different periods of human life; natural history of animals, and a description of each month in the year.

This is one of the best reading books that has ever been prepared for deaf-mutes, and furnishes an excellent practical method of making them familiar with pure, simple, idiomatic English. It is well adapted, also, for the instruction of hearing children.

Designed to introduce young learners, deaf-mutes, and foreigners to a correct understanding and use of the English language.

STRONG—OUR COUNTRY. By JOSIAH STRONG, D.D., with an Introduction by Prof. Austin Phelps, D.D. 12mo, paper, 25 cents; cloth..... 50

This remarkable book, in the few months which have elapsed since its publication, has passed through successive editions until now the Seventieth Thousand has just left the press, and the demand for it is unabated. It is, in truth, a plea of such unexampled power, its grandly marshaled facts so captivate the attention and fire the zeal of every reader with a spark of patriotism or religion in him, that it has created a wider and deeper enthusiasm than any book which has left the press within the current year.

"Deserves to be read by all thinking people."—New Haven Register.

SYMONDS—ABSTRACT OF THE ELEMENTS OF UNITED STATES HISTORY. By H. C. SYMONDS. 16mo, cloth..... $0 60

S. Military or Naval Schools. The work covers the ground briefly, but includes all the material facts ordinarily taught by United States Histories.

TODD—INDEX RERUM. By JOHN TODD, D.D. Revised and Improved by Rev. J. M. HUBBARD. Quarto, cloth..... 2 50

The index is intended to supply to those who are careful enough readers to make notes of what they may wish to use again, a book especially adapted to that purpose by a system of paging by letters, each page having a margin for the insertion of the word most expressive of the subject of the note. It contains 280 pages of quarto size, ruled and lettered, and in the hands of an industrious reader forms in the course of years a perfect index of his reading, as valuable as he may choose to make it complete. It may be fairly said to be the most useful and convenient book ever devised for the purpose of making permanent the results of the Student's, Writer's, and Professional man's reading. Its system and arrangement are such, that with the minimum of effort it secures a lasting record of every reference that may be thought worthy of preservation in the course of the widest reading.

"I have no hesitation in saying that the plan of the Index Rerum, by Rev. Dr. Todd, is better adapted to the object for which it is intended than any other with which I am acquainted."—Ex-President Mark Hopkins, Williams College, Mass.

"It is only in the plan of the Rev. Dr. Todd's work that I find an arrangement exactly suited to the wants of the professional and literary man."—Prof. M. P. Jewett.

TODD—THE STUDENT'S MANUAL. By JOHN TODD, D.D. 12mo, cloth..... 1 50

A work of real worth for students and those who desire to become such in the best sense of the word. It is written with force and that convincing quality which creates an inclination on the part of the reader to adopt as his own that fine body of rules and principles which it directly inculcates. As a formative book for the College period of life, it is unequalled in our literature. It has received the universal approbation of those who are interested in the best education.

"I know of no better guide for young men seeking to obtain a liberal education. It ought to be in the hands of every student. It is worth many times the price for which you sell it."—James S. Rollins, President of Curators State University, Mich.

"In our opinion Dr. Todd has thrown together some of the best practical lessons for students that we have ever seen embodied in a single work, just suited to the experience of students as they are in our colleges."—Phil. U. S. Gazette.
